ORDER

On October 11, 1989, the Public Employment Relations Board (PERB or Board) received the San Francisco Community College Federation of Teachers, AFT 2121 (Association) Request for PERB to Vacate Decision Nos. 703 and 703a.<sup>1</sup> The Association's request was based on the recent decision by the Court of Appeal, First Appellate District, Division Five in United Public Employees Local 790. SEIU. AFL-CIO v. Public Employment Relations Board (1989) _____ Cal.App.3d _____, which annulled PERB's decision in

---

<sup>1</sup>As evidenced by its proof of service, the Association has failed to serve the San Francisco Community College District (District). As the Board finds that it has no jurisdiction to vacate PERB Decision Nos. 703 and 703a, the Board finds that its denial of the Association's request will not prejudice the District.

San Francisco Community College District (1988) PERB Decision
Nos. 688 and 688a.

As neither the Association nor the District sought judicial review of the Board's decision in Decision Nos. 703 and 703a, those decisions became final. As the Board does not have jurisdiction to nullify or vacate a final decision, the Board denies the Association's request.
